

Task	Check
Planning and Preparation
Choose the location and evaluate vacant land.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Plan a detailed budget to avoid costly rework.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Obtain necessary permits and confirm compliance with safety standards.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Design and Layout
Create architectural plans, including home's exterior, interior finishes, and built-ins.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Incorporate outdoor living spaces and outdoor lighting into the design.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Address critical areas, such as flood zones or steep slopes.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Construction
Clear and level the site while preserving drainage.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Mark foundation and underground pipes/water lines before breaking ground.	<input type="checkbox"/>

Pour the foundation and complete framing while considering weather conditions.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Install water lines, electrical systems, and HVAC equipment.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Interior Work
Complete drywall installation after inspections.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Select and install flooring, cabinetry, and paint adhering to safety standards.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Install built-ins like bookshelves and cabinetry.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Exterior Work
Complete siding, roofing, and exterior painting.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Plan and implement landscaping and outdoor living spaces.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Install outdoor lighting for safety and aesthetics.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Final Steps
Schedule and pass final inspections.	<input type="checkbox"/>

Conduct a final walkthrough to identify needed repairs.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Deep clean and ensure all systems are operational before moving in.	<input type="checkbox"/>

Disclaimer

This checklist is for informational purposes only and serves as a general guide. It may not cover specific requirements for all regions or projects. Please check your local building codes, regulations, and laws to ensure compliance for your new home construction project.